

P3Software Transaction Data Confidentiality Policy

P3Software retains information on customer transactions to properly facilitate automated communications and to operate the supplier response system.

We know that the confidentiality of our clients' transaction data is of paramount importance to them. This information is maintained with a high level of security and confidentiality at all times.

We retain the right to use the limited data retained from our clients and their transactions for our internal use only. Client, Supplier and Transaction data will not be shared with any 3rd party. In the event that the client or other party requests client specific data, it will only be released with prior written consent from the client.

P3Software does not archive all data. Periodically, old transaction data is purged. We do not guarantee that any past transaction data will be available after the date of the transaction communication.

Clients can request in writing that data related to their transactions be purged from our systems. A reasonable fee will be assessed for such special purging activities.

This policy (TDC) – effective 01-03
P3 Software, Inc